

Job title: Research Assistant

Reporting to: The Chief Executive

Areas of responsibility: Contacting Parliamentary Candidates across the UK, and asking their views on the sugar tax, updating records, and other administrative tasks.

Required education: 5 GCSEs A-C (including Maths and English).

Skills required: Good writing skills (including spelling, grammar, and punctuation), good analytical skills, and a basic knowledge of the current debate on the sugar tax.

Location: Working from home.

Hours: Flexible, and no more than 10 hours per week.

Pay: This role is unpaid, but any food or travel costs will be paid for by People against Sugar Tax.